

Marica Pinnock

Marica Pinnock is a first year University of Guelph Commerce student. With a major in Public Management, Marica is learning about business, politics, and law, as well as how they all coincide. Marica aspires to become a lawyer, and after the completion of her undergraduate studies would like to attend York University, Osgoode Hall Law School.

A fun-fact about Marica is that she has been associated with the Youth In Policing Initiative (YIPI) Program since she was eight years old, helping her dad who volunteers by providing leadership training for youth in the program. She then worked as the Halton Regional Police Service YIPI Coordinator in 2018.

Marica is very passionate about volunteering and one of her many volunteering highlights was managing the VIP Registration Desk at Jean Augustine's 80th birthday. Furthermore, in high school, she volunteered with the Canadian Caribbean Association of Halton (CCAH) as a Youth Coordinator, where she worked to help students earn volunteer hours through the CCAH/ HRPS Leadership Training Program. Her passion for volunteering was recognized in grade 11 when she received the Lieutenant Governor's Heritage Award and Scholarship for youth aged 24 and under (only two awarded across Ontario).
