

Preston Harrison

Preston Harrison was born October 1, 2001 and is the only son and youngest child of three children for his parents. He is also the only grandson for both his maternal and paternal grandparents. Preston views himself not only as the baby of the family but also as an extremely hardworking and responsible young man. He has been an Honour Roll student who has been engaged in many active roles in his school and the community.

Currently, Preston is part of the Black Mentorship Program, Breaking Barriers and athletic council at his school. He is involved in his church's youth group and welcoming/ushering team and serves as a convener for the Durham City Basketball Association (DCBA) tournaments as well as a scorekeeper.

Preston defines himself as a physically active person who has been involved in a variety of sports throughout his life. As a child, he ran track competitively and studied martial arts where he believes he learned discipline and time-management. He has been an avid basketball player since grade 4 and played on many school and house teams for his school including the Durham City Bulldogs. As the years went by, Preston developed as a player and leader and was elected by many coaches to join Canada Elite AAU team where we travelled to the United States to play other teams. His team also won the Lake Ontario Secondary School Association (LOSSA) championship.

In his spare time, Preston states that he enjoys spending quality time with family and friends where they play card games and watch movies.

In the fall of 2019, Preston plans to attend Queen's University to study Sociology for his undergraduate degree with future plans to attend law school for his post graduate studies.
